SUBJECT: WARNING LETTER AND ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Dear Mr. Wilson:

On January 16, 2014, a Notice of Administrative Charges and Opportunity for an Adjudicative Proceeding were issued to you, seeking suspension or revocation of your gambling license. The Request for Administrative Hearing and Interpreter due by February 8, 2014, has not yet been received from you.

These administrative charges were issued against your license following a routine annual criminal history check. The charges allege that you have made only four payments in the last seven years towards your eight open court-ordered fines and fees cases. As a result, the Washington State Gambling Commission would have grounds to suspend or revoke your license pursuant to RCW 9.46.075(1) and WAC 230-03-085(1), (3), and (8).

After further investigation and reconsideration, we have decided to dismiss the above charges without prejudice; an Order of Dismissal is enclosed with this correspondence. The Washington State Gambling Commission regulates gambling, in part, with voluntary compliance from licensees. Accordingly, we trust you will continue to comply with state gambling laws and Commission rules. Please contact Jennifer Stretch, Paralegal, at (360) 486-3465, if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

David Trujillo,
Director

Bremerton, WA 98311

On January 16, 2014, the Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission issued Joshua A. Wilson Administrative Charges for suspension or revocation of his gambling license. The charges were based upon willful disregard for complying with court orders, resulting in six Failures to Appear and over $4,331.70 in court-related fines in collections for nonpayment.

Following issuance of the Administrative Charges, Commission staff has determined that the warning letter issued on January 24, 2014, is sufficient to resolve this matter, and that the Administrative Charges against Joshua A. Wilson should be dismissed without prejudice.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Commission's Notice of Administrative Charges be dismissed without prejudice.

Dated this 24 day of January, 2014.
